Scéalta Éireann – The Stories of Ireland

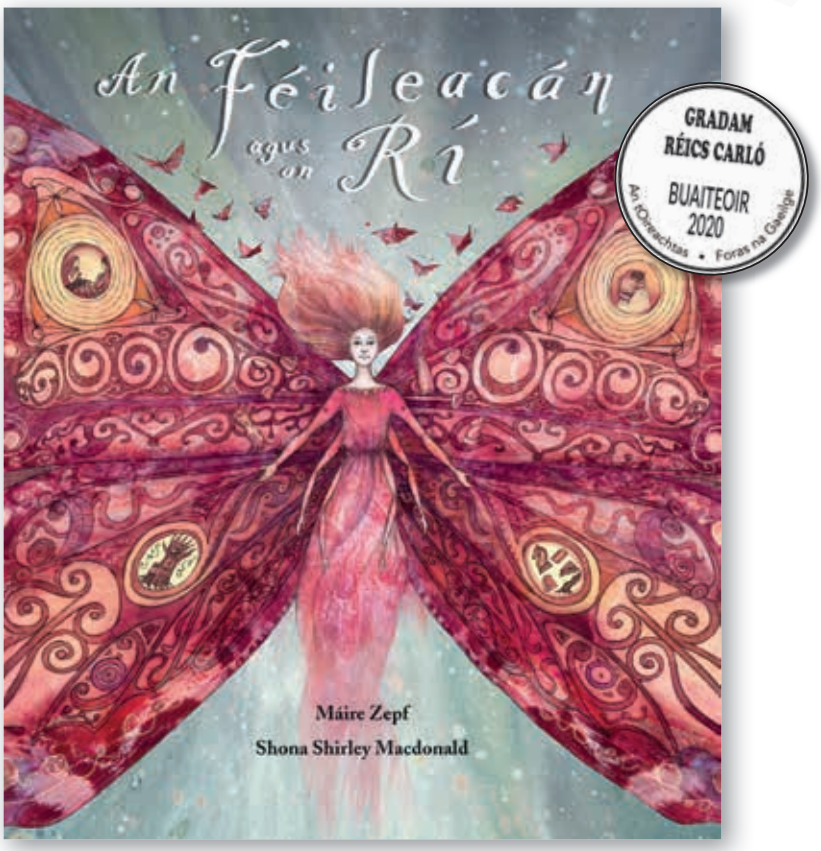
Cluasa Capaill ar an Rí

Bridget Bhreathnach & Shona Shirley Macdonald

Tá rún mór ag an Rí, Labhraidh Loingseach, rún a chuireann náire an domhan air: ní cluasa duine atá air ach cluasa capaill.

The story of Labhraidh Loingseach, the king with the horse's ears, an international folktale told and retold for hundreds, maybe thousands of years.

ISBN: 978-1-910945-60-5



An Féileacán agus an Rí

Máire Zepf & Shona Shirley Macdonald

Tá scéal Éadaoin agus Mhír á insint in Éirinn le breis mhaith agus míle bliain. Baineann Máire Zepf casadh nua as an seanmhiotas ina leagan sise agus tugann ealaín aoibhinn Shona Shirley Macdonald draíocht na samhlaíochta Gaelaí chun beatha ann.

A retelling for the 21st century of one of Ireland's most beautiful legends, the story of Éadaoin, turned into a butterfly by a jealous rival for the love of Mír. Shona Shirley Macdonald's stunning illustrations capture the otherworldly atmosphere of this story, first written down in the 12th century.

Patricia Forde

Tá gach duine i dteaghlach Aoife gafa leis an stair – is é sin, gach duine seachas Aoife. Ní thuigeann sise cén fáth a gcaitheann a Mam an lá ar fad thuas ag an tseanmhainistir áitiúil sa tóir ar thaisce rúnda faoi thalamh. Nuair a thugann Aoife cuairt ar an tseanmhainistir chéanna I lár na hoíche, áfach, faigheann sí amach nach bhfuil an stair chomh leadránach agus a shíl sí...

Everyone in Aoife's family loves history. Everyone, that is, except for Aoife. She can't understand why her archaeologist Mom spends day after day looking for buried treasure in the ancient monastery. When Aoife visits the old monastery in the dead of night, she discovers that history isn't as boring as she thought...

An Rás Chuig an Mol Thuaidh

Catherine Johnson, Fearghas Mac Lochlainn

Bunaithe ar fhíorscéal an eachtránaí, Matthew Henson, leaid óg a d'éalaigh ón leasmháthair a chaith go dona leis. B'é an chéad fhear é a sheas ag an Mhol Thuaidh, ach níor bhain sé riamh cáil amach lena linn de bharr dhath a chraicinn.

When orphan Matthew Henson ran away from his evil stepmother and a new life in the big city, no one could have predicted that he would become the first man to reach the North Pole. A little luck and a lot of hard work led to a life of adventure on the high seas and in the Arctic. But back home in America, his achievements were ignored due to the colour of his skin. Race to the Frozen North tells his incredible true story.

Is mise Jeff Kinney, údar 'Diary of a Wimpy Kid'

I was thrilled when I found out that the book was going to be translated into Irish because my heritage comes from Ireland. It was really special to me.

Thanks for publishing my books in Ireland. Can't wait to come back!

I always felt a special connection to Ireland.

Bígí ag léamh agus ná bígí dána!

Praise for Futa Fata Publications:

Cluasa Capaill ar an Rí

Breathnach provides a well paced, expressive telling that is full of suspense and will appeal to older, independent Irish-Language readers as well as younger children drawn to the visuals. Meanwhile, the sumptuous otherworldly illustrations by Shona Shirley Macdonald are reproduced in glossy full colour by Futa Fata, in this showstopper of a picture book.

The Irish Times

Mo chéad leabhar focal Gaeilge

Is simply perfect to introduce even the youngest children to the Irish language. Bright, bold child-friendly pictures make everything clear and simple. And with a handy word list, pronounciation guide and a few basic grammer tips, you can't go wrong!

The Irish Examiner

Eoinín

The bright warm illustrations are perfect for this younger age-group and also help tell the story, who might need a little help with the Irish but would like to give it a go.

Sarah Webb, The Independent

Dialann Dlúthchara

A bhuí leis na pictiúir líníochta sho-aitheanta agus an téascs atá spréite amach, is leabhar sothuigthe é seo fiú don léitheoir is drogallaí.

CBI – The Joy of Reading Guide

Geansaí Otto

Colourful, whimsical, heartwarming and utterly charming.

Fallen Star Blog – Mary Esther Judy

MÍP

A delightful story in Irish with cracking illustrations and a wonderful visual twist towards the end, which eagle-eyed children will love.

Sarah Webb – The Independent

Cá bhfuil mo Mham?

When familiar, beloved stories are available to children as gaeilge, it multiplies the excitement, curiosity and fun of speaking Irish. And makes it much easier to learn.

Mary Esther Judy

Ó am go hAm

Is scéal lán draíochta agus eachtraíochta é seo ó pheann Patricia Forde. Ní bheidh tú in ann é a leagan uait.

Cuairteanna agus Imeachtaí

Le blianta maithe anuas, tá scríbhneoirí, maisitheoirí agus ceoltóirí Futa Fata ag tabhairt cuairte ar scoileanna agus ar leabharlanna agus ag glacadh páirte go rialta i bhféilte ealaíonn agus litríochta. Sa saol nua seo atá tagtha le Covid 19, is deacair a rá cén uair is féidir linn leanacht ar aghaidh leis an obair sin. Ach nuair a bheidh sé sábháilte a bheith le chéile arís, déan teagmháil lenár gcomhordnóir imeachtaí, Gemma, gemma@futafata.ie chun ócáid a eagrú.

Visits and Events

Futa Fata writers, illustrators and musicians love visiting schools and libraries regularly and are in constant demand on the art and literary festival curcuit. As we learn to live with Covid-19, it's hard to say when we will be able to continue those visits and events. However, when it is safe for us all to be reunited, feel free to contact our events coordinator, Gemma, by email gemma@futafata.ie to organize an event.
